

Privacy Policy

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their personal information, submitted at their own will only for the purpose of online registration, is being used online. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your personally information in accordance with our website.

What personal information do we collect from the people that visit our website?

When registering on our site, as an expression of interest to participate in the contest(s) organized by us, you are asked to enter some of your basic information like the contact details only if you want to register online. Otherwise we don't ask for any such information online from the users of our website.

When do we collect information?

We collect information from you only when you register on our site to participate in our contests.

How do we use your information?

We use this information to allow you to participate in our contest programmes with appropriate follow up (such as giving awards and/or allowing to participate in the next phases of the programme such as workshops), wherever applicable.

How do we protect your information?

We only provide articles and information. We never ask for credit card numbers. We do not use Malware Scanning.

We do not need an SSL because our objective is to promote interest in science among the students and our mode of operation is non-commercial and non-profit.

Do we use 'cookies'?

We do not use cookies for tracking purposes.

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser settings. Since browser is a little different, look at your browser's Help Menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

If you turn cookies off, Some of the features that make your site experience more efficient may not function properly.

Third-party disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally information except for that mutually agreed, either formally or informally.

Third-party links

We do not include or offer third-party products or services on our website except for those meant for philanthropic purposes or providing the user a scope for advanced search.

Please note further

That the Science Movement campaign is basically a philanthropic activity of Subhadra Charitable Trust and doesn't normally intend to collect any personalized information unless an online registration is attempted by any visitor/user, and even in the case of the latter the information required from the user/applicant is of non-invasive kind and hence secure.
